

The Two-Minute Art Tip segment opens with several small videos on the screen from past shows plus the text "I like shiny". The title of the segment also appears which is "The Bestest Artist Apron in History? Probably..."

Hello and welcome to Cheap Joe's Art Stuff. My name is Julie and I'm here to impart some knowledge to you today via a two-minute art tip. And today's tip I want to introduce to you may be the coolest apron in recent history. (The product web page appears on screen.) I'm going to go as far as to say that. The new Cheap Joe's Makers Crossbody Aprons. I am wearing one now. As you can see, this is not the normal gloomy black that I have worn for so many other years. This apron is designed to address a whole bunch of issues for making your painting process easier, not just not getting stuff all over you.

So it has some unique design features that we want to show you. One, is that it's made from heavy duty canvas, and two it has (Julie stands up and walks to the front of her desk to model the apron) these really unique crossbody straps. In addition, it has these grommets on the side so you can adjust how high you want the crossbody (Julie turns around with her back to the camera) to come to when you tie it, which also allows you to, can show you here, you can adjust how high up it comes so you can adjust it down or you can pull this and have it come way up, whatever is comfortable for you, you can adjust it and that's really cool. Plus it has tons of pockets.

Now as you can see, I'm not tall. If you ever thought that I was, this will prove that I'm not happening in the height department. So this comes way down past my knees and it has all kinds of functioning pockets. One for your mic (Julie shows the pocket where she has her microphone transmitter stored) then there's places for your pencils and your brushes and then you also have this cool pocket in the front where you can put like your phone or paper towels or something that you need ready access to. But it's just made from fantastic materials so it's going to last a really long time, and we have it available in four different colors. (The individual colors that are available for the apron appear on screen.) A great addition to your art stuff set up to kind of keep your art stuff off of you. The new Cheap Joe's Makers Crossbody Aprons, available now. Get them here only at Cheap Joe's, we hope that you will enjoy.
